Interest in Photography How did your interest begin, and what do you enjoy photographing?

[Write one short paragraph about your photography journey, inspiration, and preferred subjects or style.]

My interest in photography began in April 2023 when I traveled to the Patagonia region of Argentina and Chile. Not having any photography experience and this was a photography tour; I borrowed a camera just for that trip and the rest was history.

What This Exhibit Shows Describe the theme, subject, place, technique, or story behind the exhibit.

[Write one short paragraph explaining what viewers will see and what you hope the images communicate.]

This series depicts another love of mine which is black and white. Shooting in black and white can challenge one to view the world differently, to see inherent drama in everyday scenes, and the raw beauty while focusing on the interplay of light and shadows. The power of light, shadow, texture, and composition can be used to tell stories without color. This highlights a passion for photography fundamentals and how black and white allow those elements to stand out.

I've been a member of the Simsbury Camera Club since 2023. It's a great club with a lot of friendly people who help other members hone their skills. They have helped me with my photography and processing skills. Please consider joining!
